" The Lord God Of Hosts Is the Prince Of Darkness"

What human dares write such supposedly dire nonsense? What human with any brains at all would take on total blasphemy? How dare you, as a devout christian, read such an unholy accusation. This human answers by asking how can an intelligent world worship an unholy devil in the name of the Devine Creator? How can the taking of ANY life be justified in the name of LOVE when it constitutes total DESTRUCTION, The end result of hate? This contradiction is supported by the biblical god of this planet, because this god is devided into hundreds of cults, throwing each cult against each other..in thousands of years of carnage & destruction under his central name of 'god'. Though pronounced different in a hundred different languages. the meaning is the same, Pure Domination. Do as you are told or die and suffer horrors beyond description for an eternity. Spiritually locked into an unbreakable mold of torture! This ia LOVE ? If you do as you are told however...which is an impossibility to do in totality, you will supposedly gain everlasting life and SERVITUDE! Most stupid examples of our species are begging and praying to be such slaves for all eternity. Many kill and commit carnage to free themselves of slavery, yet they fail to realize they are perpetuating the domination rule with their actions and they are as bad as their rulers by following such dominion actions. Even if atrocity and pushyness is done in the usual name of love. As an old soul and educated human you should know better by this time. I am going to give it to you strait on-then, because you probably deserve it. I am not going to be compassionate in the human sense of the word, which means to 'suffer' for someone else. The visitor Jesus Christ was not particularly compassionate to the dominion factions of his time. He tore the Pharisees, Romans & 'gods' of his time apart at every opportunity. He laughed at the 'laws' of the gods and indicated they were worthless. he told the Judeans that they had made big & little sins & that they had changed the laws of his father-creator. Never once did he use the term 'god'. He knew the origin of the dominion 'gods' of this planet. Even today we spout the lords prayer and never seem to catch on that there is no reference to any of the usual 'gods' We may assume it to be the same reference but that is hardly what the historians who made up such terms, thought originally. The Sumerians, Chaldeans & Egyptians gave us our languages, culture and 'gods' (plural) They gave us lords and gods who used total destruction and fear to shape humanity into slavery and subjection. Some 13,000 years ago the records of many cultures show that these 'gods' visited total slavery and destruction on our species. The leaders of the dominion systems in power were totally ruthless and demanded total obedience. The basic systems of fear and oppression have carried over to the very present under the manipulation of the 'god' leader.

Unlike you, I know of what I speak about, yet even the stupidest human can find the truth of what is told here in the records of the past. As promised, the truth has always been available and can set you free at any time If you make the effort. Who am I to speak to you in such a manner? I am a 'visitor'. I am here as promised....

I am living among you by my own choice. I am suffering with you & doing as you do in order for you to get a last chance to correct yourself in KNOWLEDGE before the final days of the planet come upon you in judgement. Most will make their choices in IGNORANCE. but hopefully you will comprehend enough of the truth to reverse your path of domination. You will make your own choice under your own judgement. Even though most of the bibles over the centuries have tried their best to eradicate the facts & truth.

I openly and unafraid take on your god, as Christ & Moses did..and as the very 1st 'visitor' did...during the time of what your writings refer to as the 'holy ghaust (windy one) I have come not to die as most former teachers did but I come as one of the several million visitors..under the right of total defense. We have the total right of total self defense at our beck and call. Most of we visitors are of total intelligence in the FREE Choice system of the one Creator. All the demons and gods of either dimension can make no headway in wiping out our rights of action & choice. The prince of darkness is subject to the final resurrection and choice laws and must abide or perish under the same law as you. The final choice laws have been invoked and all upon this planet shall make their final choices in the days ahead. As promised, you will make your choice in knowledge or in ignorance, yet if in ignorance, it will not be because you were not given the opportunity..... Your choice shall forever remain yours and there shall be no turning back once it is made. If you should wish more knowldege concerning your choice you will get answeres in exact proportion to your sincerity in asking the questions. There is no power in any being or of your so called 'hell' that can prevail against your knowing or recieving answeres. The powers beyond your ken or understanding that placed the Prince Of Darkness here, the powers that reach beyond the infinity of the Universes are available as your goal. These abilities and powers are far beyond those hinted at as a reward from your devil god. Your choices are simple, You can follow the domination patterns of your devil god or the Free choice (golden rule) patterns of your father creator.

Under the choice system of your creator all bibles have carried both the 'free choice' and 'doination' principles in them. Most of you humans have paid attention to and followed only the dominion principles in them. You have remembered only the parts that ordered you to action...and blithely skipped the parts where you were asked to do something by choice. For countless centuries you have made the same old domnaton choices.

Now two of us, as heads of this particular mission, are here to see that you get your chance. We did not relish coming here and tasting the bitterness & seeing the chaos, but it was vital in as much as time was short. Your devil god and his goals has put you & your kind at the brink of disaster and planetary ruin. Yet we will postpone many of these horrors until the planet has sufficient time and knowledge to make a more valid choice. Your 'revelation' speaks of chariots and hosts of angels but it is of the dominion part of your bible and it portends nuclear war heads sending millions of devil god worshipers to the non physical by nuclear means. You have been close to having a nuclear nightmare for a number of years now. Many times our forces have prevented an early end to your life cycle. An end that would see daily starvation and agony for a thousand years of what could have been a bright future....

You and your kind may yet choose to end this cycle in a fiery holocaust for we will not allow continual interference in your destiny if you insist upon destruction. For years I have watched most of you choose to follow in the steps of the devil god you worship, following like sheep and getting few of the rewards promised. Read your bibles again if you doubt that you are following dominion power principles. Once you have grasped the difference in the principles and intelligence, you will make your choice in awareness & knowing. There are several million of us volunteers to help you if your choice is toward the FREE... with this and the power of your creator-Father back of this choice you will be backed in this choice all the way to infinity. You now stand ready to deny me and mine & you might ask of what is the intelligence that I speak of? What is the Earth and Universe composed of. Why are we here and where are we going. Why must we go through all the horrors we inflict on each other? I shall answer you in the same words you use and at the same comprehension level. This is why we beings with alien components have lived and worked among you. So we could understand how to present your choices at a level you could understand. Unlike you, we need nothing at your level of this dimension. We use a body of matter in our mission & are at home in dimensions & worlds far beyond anything you can imagine...yet we freely offer you such a goal if you but make the choice and effort. We are not going to offer you miracles, because your brain and rational mental components invariably dredge up 'rational' excuses why miracles are not miracles. In truth, you have constant 'miracles' around you which you constantly ignore as happenstance. Life itself is a miracle. but you do not even know the definition of life. Life is must sustain and perpetuate itself & the fact is, many things you consider life are not life at all. Life in fact, never dies, the Atoms change from non material atoms to material atoms.

As a background to understanding some of these concepts lets look at the background of your bible. The words of the great teacher & visitor Christ got changed very quickly through agents of the prince of darkness. Probably the most drastic & insidious changes in the early records came out as what you know as 'Revelation'. The early priests made up this work to offset the words of Christ and it worked quite well. Follow your devil god and Revelations will even come true. There is no actual 'Hell' as any biblical scholar can determine in correct translation research, yet millions have been so twisted in their thinking by domination, that they actually need hell to block them from committing mayhem. Christ was once asked if he would come again and he answered that he would always be with us...but at the end of time, a man of Revelations would come among us " & you shall have that knowledge which you shall seek". Has it ever occurred to you that nothing today is a revelation that has already been revealed two thousand years ago? Get a dictionary if this idea escapes you. You can either get led along in stupidity or get out of animalism. Most persons are making their final choices while you are watching them do so. There are three grouping that are easy to recognise. There is the animal man or human...as we were in the beginning

Persons who do not want the responsibility of greater knowledge & awareness. There is the dominant, violent human type standing beside the Prince Of Darkness...desiring more control and power over others. & there is the FREE being who is standing by the Father desiring that all have their choice & self earned rewards. As promised by Christ, the Man Of Revelations is among you, watching, searching and gathering all the facts for a just 'time of choice'. He knows what the prince of darkness has done to you and your temptations, yet he will not judge...but only set judgement ready. He has started to move in his mission goals after many years of waiting. May your Father help your judgement now because your devil god is powerless in halting this final judgement time. The Man of Revelation cannot die until his living human body finishes the mission. So it has been said, and so it will be.

Your planet is technically dying. at it's birth, it was beautiful and an amazing life among universes. It was later selected as a place of exile for a 'counter intelligence' and at this time it died and started to degenerate. Since this cannot continue or be in totality, at the same second ...a rebirth signal was activated in your Galaxy. Regardless of your choices then, at the end of the judgement period your planet will be reborn and the energies now cut off will re enter and rejuvenate her. Scientists may be skeptical at such a concept but they are not even aware of what 'life' really is. If they do not know life, how can they know what death is? Humans are aware only of the 3rd dimension, Most know nothing of life in continuity..or life as it truly is in all dimensions. Scientists build up their theories about the origins of matter assuming Earth has always had an Iron core. This is why science can have no perfection in their formulations and calculations. The organic chain of death is totally wrong in relation to Earth minerals & succeeding levels of organic death change. Carbon 14 dating is completely unreliable because of such imperfection...as science is finding out. Formulations by men like Einstein are brilliant but in assuming the speed of light is infinity is an error. Something is pushing and pulling light and that 'thing' has to be faster...and even the thing that moves that thing must be even faster still. To be accurate Quantum must be tied in with Triangulistic math. Binary math simply doesn't go beyond our one dimensional 'material' world. Trinary math is necessary to approach 1st instance energy change levels when tied to Quantum. At this time, all correction figures in math are incorrect. Which throws Quantum off from it's own perfection. Right now 814 is roughly 790 by atomic sequence, and the well known 3.14 key numerical summator is simply out of the total infinity equations. What you humans have done with knowledge since it was 1st introduced is amazing to 'visitors'. You use it in the wrong direction and then continues to warp it to hide your own mistakes from yourselves. This has turned knowledge into a terrible weapon and one used by your devil god against you. You would consider a person who built a gun that shot the shooter a fool. Yet this is what you do with your weapons of war continually..and you call yourself brilliant. Well, if the energies guided by your creator -Father were just one atom out of sequence and perfection, you could wind up looking like something in a horror movie...yet many of you like to think that everything just happened....try this 'just happened bit with your atom to radium to plutonium scramblers and your world would go up in nova emanations.

You are indeed lucky that the free totally excuse ignorance, something your devil-god does not take a look at your 'free' laws, ignorance is no excuse. But remember one thing-stupidity is not excuseable. Stupidity means you know better-but go ahead anyway. Keep using stupidity as an excuse and this planet of yours will be filled with baa-ing sheep as promised by your devil-god. The meek shall inherit the earth is almost totally true-the devil-god didn't seem mirthfully fit to add; what is left of it, that is..but intelligence will go on.

What you call intelligence is an energy wave length. What is energy? The word itself is basically anything that will perform motion and/or work. Thus electricity is energy, but what is behind the electricity and the muscle? What is behind each and everything that is done..the animal, the sea, the sun, the human..that is where all fumble, looking for they know not what. The word "God" originated, and that has been the vague catch-all ever since earth time began in relationship to man.

What is behind all this facade is the one word known and used around the world, without anyone being aware of exactly what it is or means. You have tried to measure it, pinpoint it, grasp it, or in no way grab it. From whence it came and to where it goes you know not.

Intelligence is a wavelength, the same as radio, television or sun heat reflecting in dancing mirage from desert sand. The human brain adjusting to this wavelength, can and does many sensational things, and many dull, ordinary things all depending on the acceptability of the human brain. That is the basis of the saying: ask and you shall receive. You put your brain when you ask truthfully and unafraid-into a state of acceptance. If you do not succeed in doing this, you do not get what you ask for-the brain has rejected intelligence. Intelligence has not rejected the brain, as so many wish to think.

In order to use intelligence, you need only think of it as you would your television, electric stove or any other workhorse at your command, but just like any other appliance at your command, you need control it or you will have disastrous results. To control intelligence, you must never ask for yourself anything that you would not wish everyone else to have, even your most dreaded enemy.

You, very bluntly, are not yet capable of doing this under the dominion of the devil-god, and the ones that do bring forth more domination, not less, because they want of another, not for another. To blast the point literally in to your devil-god brain pattern: all the men and women that pushed forth intelligence upon this planet asked nothing for themselves, but gave humanity all, even their lives. Einstein, Curie, Freud, and so many others all the way back to Moses placed forth the intelligence, only to have it grasped and turned into a hell's fury by the dominating pattern of the devil-god: that which starts out to benefit man is turned to the destruction of man by the cunning of the one you call Satan and God in the same breath.

The Prince of Darkness does not possess intelligence

-this being possesser counter-intelligence, that is why this being is here trying to set aside the intelligence of the Supreme Intelligence. In this dimension, think of it in the cause and effect principle: Supreme Intelligence by necessity must have an opposite, another end to the wavelength. Supreme Intelligence by necessity must be free in all limits: therefore, the other end of the wavelength has to be totally bound. You are on the bound end, but free to travel on the wavelength any length you wish to, but by environmental pattern, Satan ties you to the bound end. You are afraid to venture one inch into the wavelength to find what is there. This is the block you must breach to reach any intelligence at all. Only you can breach it, none can do it for you. Satan would have you believe dominion power can do this for you.

The answer is simple and irrevocable; in 13,000 years it has never happened. Satan's failure lies in all the broken and miserable promises around you at this very instant. You are still a miserable, sick, dying imitation of the god-man you have been promised to be!

No known energy can spark, gather together, form, generate, burn, fuse, or generate iron, yet it is generally believed-not proven-that this planet began as iron..it died into iron from another energy form. All products of the planet have been dying ever since, including you.

All solar systems are interlocking matrixes of wavelength under what you call intelligence. All solar systems are interlocking matrixes forming universes. All Universes are interlocking matrixes forming intelligence.

If your brain can grasp it, you have the end of infinity. It is at the beginning, so there can be no end, as Satan would have you believe. One step further-neither can you end. You are stuck with it, in one capacity or another. That capacity is what you now have to choose. To be free or bound or animal.

You were-until the advent of Satan-an animal, although the king of animals upon this your planet. You, as with all animals around you, were complete in your knowledge (that which you now call instinct) and did not even know you were on a 'planet'! Just as a dog, a horse, a cat, does not know they are on a planet. In your complete knowledge, you were satisfied, just as the horse, dog, cat is satisfied today among you. No? They must be -have you seen one driving around in a contrivance of its own imagination, projection, design, assembly, test and product of its own paws or wings?

When the advent of Satan in the form of counter-intelligence hit this planet, all hell busted loose.

Total intelligence among total ignorance. While Satan possesses counter-intelligence, do not jump to the conclusion that his intelligence is not total. It is. This paradox could not exist, so it would not. You are the result. Animal man mated to a god-and the first born called 'hu-man'! The long balancing out began, open to choice all the way until today, because Satan had what he was exiled away from.

Now as a human, you are going to get some recorded history-recorded by you-as to that of which I write. You may go to the public library and read the all of it yourself, these are merely pertinent extracts.

You must realize, as you read the following, that all you have today in the western world was built upon this foundation. That culture and religion are one and the same; that kings and leaders came forth in knowledge, and that, according to your written history, they faded and died! You will clearly see why 'Ra' the Egyptian sun-god was thought to be the sun there simply was nothing more powerful to liken the 'god' to!

So now you move back, back some 13,000 years ago!

HISTORY OF CHALDEA (extracts)..the cuneiform system of writing was syllable, each character denoting a syllable, so that we know what were the vowels in a proper name as we well as the consonants. Moreover, the pronunciation of the consonants resembled that of the Hebrew consonants, the transliteration of which has long since become conventional. When, therefore, an Assyrian or Babylonian name is written phonetically, its correct transliteration is not often a matter of question. But, unfortunately, the names are not always written phonetically. The cuneiform script was an inheritance from the non-semitic predecessors of the semites in Babylonia, and in this script the characters represented words as sounds. Not infrequently the semitic Assyrians continued to write a name in the old

Sumerian way instead of spelling it phonetically, the result being that we do not know how it was pronounced in their own language. The name of the Chaldean Noah, for instance, is written with two characters which ideographically signify 'the sun' or 'day of life,' and the first of which the Sumerian values were UT, BABAR, TAM, and PAR, while the second had the value of ZI. Were it not that the Chaldean historian Berossus writes the name Xisuthros, we should have no clue to its Semitic pronunciation...

Do you understand? The Semitic-or Jewish-race goes back 13,000 years to Chaldea, just after the Sumerians vanished. Some 5000 years ago, the Ten Commandments of Moses were written in the above mentioned language, supposedly dead for Chaldea-the first races to colonize this country of rivers, (the original Garden of Eden the Bibles say) or at any rate the first of which we can find traces, seem to have belonged to three different types. The most important were the Semites, who spoke a dialect akin to ARAMAIC, HEBREW, and PHOENICIAN. It was for a long time supposed that they came down from the north, and traces of their occupation have been pointed out in Armenia in the vicinity of ARARAT, or halfway down the course of the Tigris, at the foot of the Gordyeen mountains. It has recently been suggested..search for their place of origin in Southern Arabia.. side by side with these Semites, the monuments give evidence of ill-defined character, which some have how long? Oh, you want it spelled out for you..7000 years...

So now we go to Egypt, so hold on to your brain waves... ..Ra dwelt in Heliopolis..His court was mainly composed of gods and goddesses, and they as well as he were visible to men..His (RA) incessant bounties left him at length with only one of his talismans: the name given him by his father and mother at birth, which they had revealed to him alone, and which he kept concealed within his bosom lest some sorcerer should get possession of it to use for the furtherance of his evil spells.

But old age came on..the body of Ra grew bent, "his mouth trembled, his slaver trikkled down to earth and his saliva dropped upon the ground...".. enter woman..Isis, a mere woman servant, conceived the pro-sought, without much success, to connect with tribes of the Urals, or Altai; these people are for the present provisionally called Sumerians. who came from some northern country; they brought with them from their original home a curious system of writing, which modified, transformed, and adopted by ten different nations, has preserved for us all that we know in regard to the majority of the empires which rose and fell in Western Asia before the Persian conquest. Semite or Sumerian, it is still doubtful which preceded the other at the mouth of the Euphrates. The Sumerians, who were for a time all powerful before the dawn of history, had already mingled closely with the Semites when we first heard of them. And they became 'wed' in religions, gods, and all other forms ject of stealing his secret from his "that she might possess the world and make herself a goddess by the name of the august god." (enter Eve and the apple in the garden of Eden) ..force, Isis knew, would be of no avail, but she was..."a woman more knowing in her malice than millions of men, clever among millions of the gods, equal to millions of spirits, to whom as unto Ra nothing was unknown either in heaven or upon earth"...this was a mere servant woman in the house of Pharaoh-who was the Pharaoh?

..Isis came up with a good idea; when man or god was struck down by illness, the only chance of curing him lay in knowing his real name, and thereby adjuring the evil being that tormented him. So Isis did, than got a job as his nurse, put her scene into action and lo!

of culture..and nothing has come down to us from the time when the two races were strangers to each other... ..so much for a written beginning: We have testimony as to living gods being present for awhile upon this earth among the savages, and from these beginnings, your present religion sprang! You must admit, these early 'gods' were a fearsome thing to the nomads, not yet called men. That is up to Herodotus... ..Herodotus did most of his writing around 435 years before Christ, at the same time the Jewish tribes were forming into a single 12 tribe rule system and writing their bible as a single entity format. It is odd, but all that Herodotus ever heard about the "Palistines" while with the priest of Egypt was that "they were the lowest of the low slaves", and nowhere in their

the god (Ra) called out aloud.. "his voice ascended into the heavens (thought he was there already -never mind) and his NINE called: 'What is it? What is it?' and his gods "What is the matter? What is the matter?" but he could make them no answer. ..and Isis took off, hell bent to win, and she almost did, until Ra came up with a potion and made her drunk!...

You smile. You idiot. This was truth to them in their day-just as it is truth to you today in your ignorance. Look at what you worship today-then try to prove your center of worship! That is how far you have advanced beyond these 'idiots' of 13,000 years ago! The first 'nomes' to actually see and live with the 'gods' of terror. ..but read on, a slightly different version gives woman as the source of 'demons or worse'...

writings did they chronicle the exodus of Moses, yet contending that they kept a 'day by day diary for over eleven thousand years.' Regretably, their 'diary' was burned while Cleopatra watched from her boat 200 years before Christ, so all we have is the word of Herodotus, the book of the Jews.. and history written in stone.. watch the history in stone be taken for themselves as Herodotus writes and they speak... ..before the reign of their King Psammitichus, the Egyptians esteemed themselves to most ancient of the human race.. this prince took pains to investigate this matter.. he had two children at birth placed with a goat-herd, with instructions.. never to speak before them, to place them in a sequestered hut, and at proper intervals

Tiamat, finding her domain becoming more and more restricted owing to the activity of the others (gods), desired to raise battalion against battalion, and set herself to create unceasingly; but her offspring, made in her own image, appeared like those incongruous phantoms which men see in dreams, and which are made up of members borrowed from a score of different animals.. bulls with human heads, horses with the snouts of dogs, dogs with quadruple bodies springing from a single fish-like tail.. just all kinds of things she created, but to no avail.. they were not of substance, so could only scare, not kill and main.. well, did it or didn't it happen? It is written you know, just as your bibles are written, so lets go back to the beginning again-in writing..

Egyptians divide their year into twelve months, giving to each month 30 days; by adding five days to every year, they have a uniform revolution of time.. they first invented the twelve gods, and from them the Grecians borrowed them..they were the first also who erected altars, shrines and temples; and none before them had ever engraved the figures of animals on stones; the truth of which they sufficiently authenticated. The name of their first king was Menes..from him came the first 'men'..then the human..Diodorus Siculus agrees with Herodotus in making Menes reign immediately after the gods and heros...now we come to time as kept by the Priests, and it takes on some strange details... ..from the first king to the last, a period of three hundred and forty one generations had passed, in which there had been as many high priests, and the same number of kings. Three generations are equal to one hundred years, and therefore three hundred generations are the same as ten thousand years, the forty one generations that remain make one thousand three hundred and forty years. During the above space of 11,340 years they assert that no divinity appeared in human form..during the above period of time the sun, they told me, had four times deviated from its course, having twice risen from where he usually goes down, and twice gone down where he uniformly rises... ..so the earth had to have 'tumbled' in space... ..in times that preceded, immortal beings had reigned in Egypt, that they had communicated with men..odd.bibles say much the same thing... ..the garden of eden, with the dwelling of nomes in near places, and the 'chosen' of the garden having gone to these nomes..the Cain and Able sequence..so ends the slight history lesson outside the bibles.

These writings should prove one thing to you; they are your writings, so at this time you were taught to write. You wrote of terrible things happening, of something that was totally beyond your knowledge at the time yet this knowledge started slowly to become yours! The long bowing to this fear-some something is very apparent in your every act today- yet what are you bowing to? Certainly not a thing of honor and love, certainly not a thing of benefit to you, but a benefit in spite of you, because in times when fear lets up and you taste even a small grain of freedom, you strike back in total revulsion, leaving your mark, and then others as centuries pass build upon it, until today you stand at the crossroads; you, by the chronicle of Egypt as to the earth tumbling in space, have until the year 2005 to prepare your technology so that when the first real evidence appears- which all humans demand in spite of their so-called faith-around 1998, you can stop your earth from tumbling again in its natural rejuvenation cycle. Should a major war happen before then, your technology will be gone, and you will live from 1998 until 2005 in absolute terror as the earth shudders, tilts, wobbles, splits and fearsome winds and rains literally shred the earth upon which you cling. Then in its final roll, the poles become the equators, and the equators the poles, in a quadrant exposure to the sun. That is the ice ages of which your puzzled geologists speak; they thing the ice slides down the side of the earth much the way water slides down around a pear when placed on top, forgetting that gravity is to the center with earth and to the bottom with a pear.

You and only you can stop this re-cycle. It can be done with today's technology and should be done, but you need proof of faith, so you will wait and poise atomic destruction to each other, thereby, should you use it, condemn yourself to the re-cycle..you may ignore all this; the Egyptian scientists that gave today's scientist all they have were nuts, and your 'god' will save you in spite of all of mans sinful ways. ..tell me, when has this ever happened that you know about, when has your 'god' ever delivered this earth you call home from any destructive happening? Never. You have done it, when it has been done, with your very weak hands and human brain! And paid a horrible price while doing so, and this lets you speak wrathfully about 'god' and ask a question: I didn't ask for this horror, why should I have to go through it?

You may well ask: why should you go thru this horror of your own making and the answer is simple; you did not make it -Satan, the devil-god, made it for you! You are to unmake it, accept it or deny both and go back where you were: animal. You are in the process of being 'born again' if you so wished or now wish-being reborn from an animal into intelligence or counter-intelligence. Or you may totally recycle and start all over again in the long climb to intelligence or denial of it. That will be Satans way, not the way of the free.

You say why should you go thru all this hell? Why not set us free instantly if and when we so wish or decide? In the first place, the hell is created by your following of the counter-intelligence, not the free. In answer to the second question, a sudden transition to a great intelligence and the free would place you in a far greater degree of blankness than some of the TV plays you see of someone waking up a thousand years from now in a very far future city. Things you can not comprehend can not be known, and when they are not known, they can not be acted upon; press the wrong button for dinner and you get a mad man with an axe to entertain you, so placing you in comprehension of your power without your own ability to control it would be a castastrophe to you and all those around you.

When you do truthfully awaken to the free, your cycle of transition from physical to anti-physical takes on the third or soul-transition and your newly born entity goes beyond the earthbound or the dominated or slave human. As you go farther and farther in recycle in human lives, you also progress in the principle of the free in direct relationship to your ability to control your free power in dealing with other humans. This has brought up quite a drastic conflict in domination tactic's, and whole bibles teach you that you must not strike back or you will pull 'gods' wrath upon you.

You are not striking back when you are attacked, either mentally or physically, when you counter-strike their aggression, and when you have stopped this aggression cold, you also stop your counter-strike. It is really quite simple: a person strikes you and you knock them down. If they are finished and will quit, that is the end of it, but if you jump with both feet into the middle of their gut, then you are becoming the aggressor or dominator. You do have the right of total self-defense, in spite of all governments and authority teachers instructing you and your children that you do not. The Big Brother system is being taught in all public schools and universities right now and has been since the early sixties. You are told that you as a citizen have nothing to say about the public school system. That is absolutely right. You gave this freedom away without even knowing it!

You have placed 90% of all your freedoms in vested authority. Vested authority holds State and Church separate. That is the biggest outright falsehood since the english tory!

The Constitution expressively forbids ... "no laws" in respect to the church or the press! Here is the first Amendment to the Constitution:

Congress shall make NO LAW respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the FREEDOM of speech, or the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the government for a redress of grievances. That is the all of it. The rest are

'opinions' by humans to get their way around the simple statement. The founding fathers of your country were the direct victims of the above transgressions by the English, and they knew what they meant and meant what they said.

You have given away your birthright. According to the above, you and your government stand guilty of aggression against freedom of choice. Let this stand and your government and you will 'cease to be' under a law far mightier than one dreamed up by puny man. According to your own pledge, the first law written concerning religion, freedom of speech and the press, and the right to peacefully assemble was the last. Ignore your many warnings, and like the Jews at the time of Christ, your Nation of Choice will be blown to the four corners of the earth and not restored to others until the end of another area. Just as this area is ending now.

You are in the throes of destruction at this very moment. Your weapons stand ready to totally destroy the North Vietnam leadership, the Jews stand ready to totally destroy the Arab Nations with nuclear bombs, with other Nations being ready and able to jump into the conflict instantly. Yet neither instance will one of aggression, but one of counter-aggression. That is the frightening position your build-up of destruction has brought about: either way you go in war will end technology upon your planet. It is no longer a matter of who is right and who is wrong, it is a matter of survival of technology. You have but one way to go, and you do not have much time. You must push headlong into total disarmament of your planet. Now.

You do this by conscious thought and cool, steady action. You make it a pinpoint of concentration of your every moment of life, because it is your every moment of life. Let no one tell you it cannot be done, because if you do, it cannot be done. The support that flows to yours and you will astound you from the very first moment of your speaking and acting, for in this basic disarmament factor lies at the moment all of your planets ills.

Equal rights, women's liberation, equality of sexes, welfare, anything you name has been done before and succeeded for a space of time in history, until WAR wiped the effort completely out. What is ecology, smog, poisons of the earth in comparison to war as it can now be waged? Absolutely nothing. You chip away at pebbles, while a mighty granite boulder gets wobbling to totally crush you, and the pebbles you chip at so confidently are the very pebbles that sustains the mighty granite boulder!

Your money system is ruined. Your commerce is ruined. You let your freedom of ownership in basic goods go by the board. You, the greatest nation that Christ's power built, can no longer own gold, the very bedrock of value around your planet. It is outlawed to you, yet any citizen of any other nation can have it. You, as a Nation, no longer have a point of basic value. All you have is empty paper that other nations no longer want. Better than half of your oil is bought by illegal gold, better than seventy percent of your platinum is bought the same way. Without platinum, your oil can not be fractured and made useful, your auto's can not run, your television is gone—but why go on? Your head is so deep in the sand not even your backside is showing.

You placed it there; only you can pull it out. No one will fight your battle for you, but all will help each other fight the battle. Stand up, stand tall or wiggle and die like a slimy worm and wait another three thousand years to be reborn in agony of your own making. Blame it on none other than yourself or accept the torture and misery for more countless centuries until you finally do so. That is your choice.

When the jogging four horsemen break into a gallup in the very near future, it will be too late.

When famine strikes very suddenly while dollar bills blow ifly around in gutters, your tears and wailings will avail nothing. You did it to yourself, and you—just as before—will have to undo it.

You have the power, the ability, the stature and the guts to turn this your planet into the promised paradize NOW. Redirect your energies in the way of the free, order no one but demand all of yourself, and MOVE!

No power on this earth nor above can stop you if you will but choose, fix your thoughts on the goal and act. We are here to see that the gates of hell will not prevail against you as promised. Since all promises have been kept through the centuries until now, just so this promise shall also be held absolute.

You must, if you choose to reach paradise now, stand tall and vocal on:

1. World disarmament now.
2. Return of the US to the gold standard instantly.
3. Demand all go back to the constitution, without opinion, within one year.

As you read this, you need not ask about the truth in it. World War III is now in military action in your 'holy land'. This will trigger Russian Strike in China in the spring of 1974....need I go on? I, the Alien, do not blame the publishers of this paper for waiting for some proof of what has been said to date....the truth is all around them now, and is all but beating your brains out even as you read this.

You be on sad knees come your Christmas. What a shame—the birth date of your Savior that you have rejected! You in your mealy-mouth, simplifying blatant stupidity beseech His aid and help in the name of GOD—the very Satan of your planet! Clutch your guns, yell your damn fool heads off, kill, kill, kill in the name of your God—but TRY to kill in the name of the

—if you can! There is terrible awe and brain shivering even if you try! The Infinite Intelligence tolerates NO GODS BEFORE HIM— or have you forgotten? The Father will never tolerate your killing GOD taking His place KNOWINGLY. There is a power radiating, circling your planet now that has never been here before. It is of the FREE and for the FREE. There are those among you now coming out of their

'birthsleep' with their senses reeling and KNOWLEDGE awaking like bursting flowers after a spring rain. They are in all walks of life, in all Nations, and they will move as one, all 150,000,000 drawing on that energy band now in creation on your planet earth, and you are going to KNOW before they and I and Mine are finished with this our mission, and knowing you will choose.

This war now going on will be brought to a grinding halt; those that dare break or attempt to break the will of the Free will be torn down by their own kind....the howling dogs of Satan are already devouring your 'honest' second in command....by command....by SUMMER the dogs of his breed will have your first in command! The war now starting will NOT continue, so the handmaidens of your devil-god will snarl and attack each other, as they have already started to do. We of the FREE have thrown our total wavelength against the evil of the starting war. I, the Alien, have issued the command with all power vested in Me and Mine, and should the war continue, Some of the recent reported strange visitors will suddenly be as thick as bees over your very heads, because in the absence of you spineless humans, we will use 'things' to hold the carnage until you openly choose, and then we will remain until the system of the Free is installed, or should you choose your devil-god, we will abandon you to your own chosen misery and go home. As you read this, members of the FREE have already died in parts of the world, rising and acting in utter desperation against the narrowing time-rap yet remaining to turn the tide of destruction and the mandatory recycling of your planet earth.

In France, a young, successful married woman hi-jacked a plane-why? Her demand, to stop all automobile traffic in France for 24 hours! What purpose? to bring to attention of the world the dire need to stop the insane middle east war--they shot her dead--and apparently the world could care less. But that is one of Curs gone body wise from this Mission: revisit is in motion and let Satan itself beware as our forces now move under the care and direction of the Father, sweeping each minute action with the scan of infinite Intelligence and infinite Law.

I, the Alien, have called into direct action those 'things' you in your ignorance call UFO's or Flying Saucers. They move now with Mission and Goal in focus as they come in from their dimensions in expanding, beyond incredible speed to sweep with readings and energy patterns of your so-short pitiful brain wavelengths. They need to know for Curs your deeprooted fears and depressions, so that if we must, we can scare you into mute, deaf statues suspended in what you will be a horrible nightmare for hours or even days--hours and days of precious time of earth that we may need to bring you through to Promise: your choice. Not ours. We do not want this, we do not ask this, but you are so imbued with your devil-god and its handi-works that you give us no other way, as of yet. No harm will come to you from us, unless you throw harm our way. If you do, make it good, make it fast. Your earth time cycle ending could be measured in one ten billionth of a second, should you fail. This time around, you earth people keep your hands to yourself. What you humans have done over the centuries to us is knowledge, and we need no more. I and one other here is free of all law, which means to you humans that we can traverse the I AM from Infinite Intelligence to the bitter end of counter-intelligence, select and use what we decide, be it of Satan or of the Father. In the life we have led here, and the horrible messes we have survived by and at the hands of you humanoids, we have no compunctions and no pitiles left in your favor.

You, in your ignorances, have asked for action. The Father has nodded His head, and we are here. You now get action. What no one is telling you- the TV, the newspapers, the media, your politicians- is the sad fact the Jews in Is-rael laid a magnificent trap for the Arabs, and for Russia. The Jews do not want to merely stop the Arabs: oh, no-- maybe even before you read this, they will have made their final move: to totally subdue ALL Nations, disarm them, turn them over to civil authority and leave them!

They, too, are fed up to the tonsils with having to live in constant fear and threat on the back of their necks. All the world now knows how to make atomic artillery shells THAT FIT INTO DARD ARTILLERY GUNS! One shell wipes out one division and all equipment ten miles away- and ops can move into the bombed area immediately. And Golda

Meir, in her own words, has called upon the devil-god, unknowingly in the words she uttered--"should the time come, we will do what we have to do, and LET THE LORD GOD OF HOSTS DECIDE! She called on Satan to let her do his handiwork, Do you think it will stop her? And after the Strike, and the world shudders, moans, and whimpers and then says so what, Russia will move against China, NOT having to set a precedent of use of atomic war! Then, stupid humans, you aint seen any-chaos because of the thing yet....so go your apathetic driven cattle of your own planet, but this time, homo saps, you will do it by YOUR Choice, and the Infinite Intelligence can withdraw His hand forever more.... "You stand, you move now, or you put on your tail and horns....or you browse throughout eternity on this your planet as all other animals." The world moves ahead even as this is formed for your reading. This will be so from now on out. Tempo is picking up rapidly for the dominators. Russia has spotted the trap she has walked into with the Middle East was; she and she alone can halt the conflict. By the time you read this, there should be an uneasy peace, a quiet turmoil over the Holy Land. You then will choose what happens next, by your thoughts, by your actions, or lack of action. The much talked about 'tapes' of Nixon's will have evaporated. He has brought enough time to alter and rearrange them in any way he so chooses. They are now worthless and no one will dare believe one word on them. He will soon become 'ill' and in not so many months, he will resign for health reasons. This leaves the country in the hands of a former football player---but it will not should Our forces now moving to stop it succeed. Just as they moved with deadly cold precision to gring the Holy Land war to a halt through the fears of the Russians, they are now moving to hold back your catastrophe and give you time to awaken to your peril and choose. The UPO's you see will be more and more shown to you on purpose from now on until you choose. They come from other dimensions, and you see them with your eyes according to the amount of fear you contain. The more fear, the more horrible they will appear to be. The less fear you contain, the more beautiful they are. As their crafts expand to the edge of earth's dimension, the incredible speed of contact and the earth's built-in dimensional detractors must hairline in balance, almost like two cars on your freeway running a hundred miles an hour would have to use deadly precision to draw alongside and lightly without touching, and maintain the 'kiss'. When this balance disrupts for even split seconds, "something" becomes visible to the third dimension and anyone watching. When they purposefully come all the way in, your earth molecules form them into a solid, near solid or transparent envelope, according to the length of their stay. So fear them not, but fear yourselves, for you carry the deadly disease of fear, not they.

You fear for lack of oil, while there is plenty. Those in charge are not through chastising you yet. But the thing you should show great fear over you do not know about at all. The United States has absolutely no way of producing a key metal, a metal that cracks gas, furnishes electricity, allows auto's to run- each and almost every bit of your technology is dependent upon it somewhere in the chain, Russia supplies 80%, South Africa 15%, and Rhodesia 5%. You poor, stupid fools do not even know it exists! Platinum. There is not one mine in the entire United States and it's possessions! With your dependence upon technology even for food, you can liken platinum to water, and be dependent the same per cent to the same countries! For the water you use! As we bring you more and more of your total ignorance to your own plight, is it any wonder that we, the Aliens, feel that you are almost beyond hope at the ending of your present cycle We see you denying your body, denying your emotions, controlling others, hollering demand and yield, the most saintly being the most condemning, the most intolerant the churches screaming their heads off and still defiling the human body and its emotions, as though emotions were shameful things. The world still calling the female body horrible and dirty and evil beyond redemption....you had better lift your heads and look for the Father, and to the very human Christ, for you have sold your redemption for a few dirty pieces of silver to the devil-god you worship in ignorance.

COMMENTS

As this paper goes to press, actions are taking place or have taken place. It isn't often that a newspaper has the opportunity to work closely with people that look you in the eye and make flat statements about the future, without quiver, pause or quibble. What is being said comes straight out of Buck Rogers and the merry adventures of 'space travelers' comic's published in the twenties and thirties.

But as the Alien dryly pointed out, many of those things are old hat in reality now, with people hardly lifting an eyebrow. He goes on to say that inteligence is 'catching' and the 'disease' has spread around the world. He further states that humans are confused with different types of intelligence, and say one type is better than another. This is true when the intelligence from another civilization must compete with unknown intelligence data. Thus a person from an agricultural environment would be considered ignorant in a technological environment, but this does not mean they are of less intelligence, but of a DIFFERENT INTELLIGENCE, maybe greater than the one they find themselves in, but it is of no avail. They can not put it to use.

Asked about the original sin concept, he readily admits it to exist. In his words '--each time we force our will, or try to force our will on anyone else, we are again committing the original sin. Evangelizing is the greatest practice of this original sin, because it uses direct threat of pain and punishment if the idea pushed is not accepted. This has actually become inbred through the DNA blueprint into the human brain, and they do it without conscious thought. They transgress without knowing they even do so!" and he shook his head sadly. "This-he continued, "-even creates your horrible wars. War, without your knowing it, is an agravated evangelistical crusade, yet it really seldom has anything to do with creative concepts, merely destructive concepts for the others 'good'. Anything creative emerging from your wars is merely a biproduct of the destruction, with destruction in mind when it was created."

Asked about the Orwellen Law of 1984 he smiled gently and said "you mean 1973, don't you? You are merely a number and product now in thousands of everyday situations. You call it a necessity. Soon you will shake hands when introduced and give your social security number instead of your name, like 'I'm Mr. 341 dash 08 hyphen 1943'"

Asked the best kind of human he finds on earth today and his answer is prompt: "The have fun people. They smile, their eyes sparkle, they have life and live it. They ride above the current of everyday living, try not to get their feet wet. When they do, they may get sucked down into the sad eyed cow mess for awhile, but they struggle back quickly, once they find where they are."

Asked where these people are found, his reply was open

A NEWSNOVEL 9 laughter. "Everywhere you find the free and those that have glimpsed the inward happiness of the free. This means your whole wide world. But most of you detest this kind of human, not really knowing why. The 'why' is dreadfully simple; your envy is showing through, especially to those totally free. That is why they laugh in your faces and go their merry way. You must understand, the free do not evangelize, so this leaves you with a total loss of comprehension in trying to place yourself with them. You yell "Love thy neighbor" and they smile sweetly and say back, "Free thy neighbor." When reminded that this so-called 'state of the free' would not be sufficient unto itself to survive, his face goes cold and very, very implacable. "The free gave you everything you have today-you would not survive without them. In your 'hell for leather attitude' you would have long ago destroyed all you low brains could have built. It is the bound that have no discipline, no duty, no will of their own and no backbone to stand alone and unafraid. It is you that can not survive, not the free. The free have the discipline and the responsibility of being free, and thereby instantly grant it to all others, possessing nothing, but using that which they must, not transgressing, but shunting aside the transgressors to let them strangle in their own feces, until they ask for something better. By asking, they open up, then they can see. But most want to remain blind. That is their choice. But this time, they will make it knowingly."

When told that he had checked out his saying about having put 'things' to work, and that the parties interested in ESP and occult had 'seen' - or stated that they had 'seen' - row upon row of shining, magnificent, beautiful 'warriors' marching in endless continuity back to edges of infinity, coming in with slow, deliberate and measured tread to the very edge of the blue ball called earth, and the vibs that these four people had felt almost caused them to have breath failure, he said coldly, "check and be damned. This your earth is now in the process of return, after thirteen thousand years, of the forces of the Free. But this time, I am calling in three other-dimensional complete knowledges. I am going to shake your brains loose from their moorings if it needed be necessary. When I am finished, you will choose in KNOWLEDGE, not ignorance, even all the way to throwing your planet into space warp, as you call it." his face was solemn, cold. "But let me remind you, over the centuries, choose this, not I. I would have been the happiest human on earth if I had found you ready. I have not found you ready." He rose abruptly and left.

As he left, the female half of the staff, Miss Wheeler, smiled at Dawn and the other with her. "Wow, he thinks he's a whirlwind and a half- just getting up and leaving like that!"

Dawn grinned. "What's your problem? He is more than that. He owes no one anything. Can you say the same of your lifetime?"

Wheeler smiled. "Personally, yes, I can say the same. But that is not what we are here for. Dawn, you claim a knowledge beyond human also. And I notice that the other with you seems to have the same inner light, or smile of ease- it's hard to describe what your personalities project, but the vibs are very pleasant. So just what is your thing- who are you? But before you answer that, just who is he- the one that just left?"

"He told you." "I want your female view- what you know, your truth concerning him. This paper deals in the writers' truth-not our own...." When Dawn answered her voice was as flat as a tabletop and as cold as before the dinner setting. "He is of his own knowledge. My knowledge is not his knowledge. If you want a human comparison I can give you one, but it is in no way sufficient, because there is no way to communicate what he is, just as there is no way to communicate who I am. In comparison, he is the maker of law, he is of the Father, I repeat- he is of the Father, but not the Father, just as Christ was of the Father, but not the Father. In your dictionary of Bibles, you will find some enlightenment on what I speak. It is on page 229 of the Davis dictionary of the Bibles and gives chapter and verse and is stated "Father- as standing in amore mysterious relation to Jesus: Matt. xi.26; Mark xiv.36; Luke xxii.42." This so-called 'mystery' is about to be cleared up by that so-called man that just left. He stands below power to none. Each tiny energy in the complete all that is functions under his pulse and intelligence. He is total law." she turned to the editor. "Now do you understand?"

Our editor replied, "Uh....." blankly.

Miss Wheeler chuckled. "Okay, he's the big cheese. Now what and who are you, Dawn?"

"I am. How do I describe to you what I am? I came to a place, a small, blue prison planet called earth by those who inhabit the speck in the all that is. I came to you as a baby. A female baby. I blocked my knowledge from my human brain so that I could live among you as a human. To know your sorrow, your pain, your hopes, your fears, your love. To see if as a human I could refind my place in total freedom, as a human, without brain knowledge of my self, freedom, and the Father.

As a human I have regained my total freedom, in a world of total domination. As a human, I have found the Father in a world which knows not of what I speak. In a world which worships God. God the dominator, who creates fear and destroys. But I have found the Father, the all that is. Your Bible very clearly says you shall place no God before the Father. Yet you fall on your knees and pray to God. Yet, I have found the Father. I have found love, in a world which does not know the meaning of love. Love is total freedom, yet you teach love is possession. And of course possession is domination. I came from perfection. I am far from perfect as a human. There is one difference though. I know perfection and I know what needs to be done to regain perfection. The first step to reach perfection is to become totally free. The first step to becoming free as an individual is to grant total freedom to each individual you meet. The first step to becoming free as the human race is to destroy all projectile weapons. Projectile weapons are guns, bombs, missiles, cross-bows, etc. But back to telling you what I am. It is not necessary, however, someday in the future you will ask and some of you think you know already. As I have already said I came from perfection. I am from or should I say I am a mental. A total knowledge. An energy form. I am not one of the space people. I am not a spirit. I am not earth bound. When I leave your prison planet, I will return to perfection. But then I have never left perfection. I am there and I am here and am in all places. No, I am not the Father, yet I am part of the Father. But you also are part of the Father. My field of knowledge is joy. My energy is total joy in the all that is. Why am I here? To bring joy to earth. Every place, in all dimensions, in all energy forms, in all knowledges in freedom, knows joy and is constantly bathed in joy. Yet earth does not know joy nor until recently was any knowledge an energy form here bathed in joy. One of the energies which the free enjoy is the joy field.

If you are to make a choice between domination and freedom as a human in knowledge, you will need to know the joy field. That is my mission. To show you the joy field. Then the choice is yours.

I am an energy a knowledge part of the Father a human."

When Dawn finished, the quiet in the room was total. The feeling of power pulsing all around was uncanny; made you want to swallow a quick scotch and Soda-or scotch straight. Miss Wheeler stirred finally and broke the silence.

"Then who is she beside you-are there others in your immediate group?"

"Yes, there are others in the immediate group-both male and female. But the one beside me speaks for herself, as we all do, except the man that just left. He will speak and act instantly for any of us, anytime, anyplace, to or against any odds." she paused quietly. "Pray to the Father that he never has to- for the sake of your fellow humans."

Dawn turned to the one beside her. "Do you care to speak at this time?"

"I will speak. Words are sometimes such very difficult tools to use to express with---- But often, for me, words flow And as those words flow-smoothly-gently-softly--- Ideas are expressed- Ideas of joy of peace of love-

Of a world where love exists in freedom-- without jealousy without pain without dishonesty

Of a world wherein peace is the rule- rather than the exception Of a world where joy abounds- Not as an emotion fluctuating rather as a state of mind-

Constant Eternal----

The joy it would be to awaken To greet the morning sunlight Knowing-- Knowing that the coming day held only promise-- That nowhere on the earth were men stopping the joyous songs of the birds by destruction By destruction-- Of one another Unmercifully, unthinkingly Trampling on all the beauty with their boots of lead. The beauty of the lone flower- By chance growing in the path of those unyielding boots. The children-- the masses of children never even given the opportunity

To know of life-of joy-of sharing Knowing only the torturous sound of those lead boots- The adults-grown old-with twisted minds because of the echoing and re-echoing sounds of those boots- Ceaseless-never ending Trampling On all that I hold dear

Yes,

I dream of another world A world of peace A world of joy A world of love And I weep Will the pain never lessen and cease to be? They tell me- 'That's the way it's always been' And my mind enraged, says WHY?

Why does it have to be Have we no choice- Have we no opportunity for change No opportunity to say--so?! So what- I do not choose to be as I have always been- I do not choose to live in a world where no choice exists- As a child I was told-taught-molded trained- 'Society cannot exist without war-without pain' 'It keeps the economy stable' And my mind screams with frustration with rage with pain And I would ask Why?

Have you never thought to seek another way?" Miss Wheeler asked it quietly this time, because what was being said had brought a deep sincerity into the room: "Then who are you?"

"I am of value." she stated simply. We stared at them blankly.... we are still blank. You, the reader, do and think what you want. This is your right.

=YOUR ROAD=

The road you travel in life will be the road of your choosing. You can make of life just what you want to make of it. It can be difficult or it can be easy. It depends on your way of thinking. At any given moment in time you can choose and change things if you so desire. All humans have this choice. It does not matter what others choose--You are only accountable for yourself--You as an individual have the right of self defense--So does each human being--Each human is responsible for his/her self only--Not for any one else--The world you live in is one of action--reaction--which means each time you do anything, (think or act) some or something, someplace reacts to your movement, non-movement or thought. At this time, as a human there are certain things which society expects from a person--Which you already know--Also in order to live there are certain things which are necessary to support life as a human, such as eating, sleeping, sex--Again, how you handle these things is your choice. The only one you hurt by choosing the domination is yourself. Oh, you may think you are hurting others and at the time the other person may hurt. But it is because that person chose to accept the hurt--And besides when you hurt them, eventually you get each of the hurts back at one time or another--This is the law of karma--When you want freedom and do not accept the responsibility of freedom then you are dominating others. When you dominate others there is a price to pay in pain, either mental-ly or physically--The freedom you are looking for comes from within yourself--Not from others. Once you are free, you cannot be dominated nor can you dominate others. This does not mean you cannot defend yourself from the domination of others. To be free you must allow each other person to be free--Which means to let them do their own thing while you do your thing--And not condemn them or yourself for doing your or their thing--I realize that you do not understand this concept and may never understand--But again this is your choice--

Love is total freedom--
A thought is a reality--As you think so will you be--If you think you are happy--then you will be happy--If you think the world is a beautiful place--then you will see beauty--If you think you enjoy learning--then you will enjoy learning--If you like to think for yourself and make your own decisions--then you will think for yourself and make your own decisions--If you allow others to have their own feelings and thoughts and do not accept them, then you will not be hurt--But again this is part of freedom--In other words--If a person is angry or hostile and you do not accept their anger or hostility by saying, "That is your anger and hostility not mine--I do not have to feel your anger"--Then you will not get hurt--You are you and you cannot feel anyone else's joy, pain, anger, Just your own--Like-wise no one else can feel your joy, pain, or anger--Just their own. When you cut your finger, I do not feel the pain--When I cut my finger, you do not feel the pain--Oh, I or you can know what it feels like but the pain or joy only belongs to the one who has the experience--We can do things together and share but each gets his/her own pleasure or pain by the way he/she thinks and accepts the pleasure or pain--

To be a winner--you accomplish your declared purpose--A loser is some one who does not accomplish a declared purpose--A non winner is someone who works hard to just break even--A coward, is one who does not try to accomplish a purpose and one who lets others walk on him/her or dominate him/her without defending him/her self--Whenever a person says "I have to", he/she hypnotizes him/her self into believing that he/she is less capable than he/she really

A slave says, "I have to"
A weakling says, "I'm afraid to"
A helpless and incomplete person says "I need"
A free person says "I choose to" -- and takes the responsibility for his/her action. Words of domination are: 'I can't', 'I need', 'I'm afraid to', 'I have to' --Words of the free and domination are: 'I will', 'I won't', 'I want', 'I'd like to'--- Words of the free are 'I choose to'---Words of a free winner are: 'I will', 'I won't'; 'I choose to'---A person who is dominating says 'You should', 'You have to', 'You must', and makes demands of others--I realize the world you live in is a dominating world, and the words used are that of the domination--However, if the thought behind them is of choice and freedom and not demanded then they can be used provided the person is reminded that they have a choice. Again, let me repeat, THE CHOICE IS YOURS--I am here--I will hold your hand and I will stand beside you but I cannot do anything for you--You can only act for yourself just as I can only act for myself--This is freedom--

At this point you are probably thinking, I've heard all that before--How does this apply to every day living? Let's see if I can give you a few examples: One--I buy a home in which you and I live--You destroy something in the home on purpose--You are dominating me by destroying something of mine--Two - I put food in the house You eat the food and leave a mess. You are dominating me because you have dirtied the utensils and left them in

in an unusable position. Then I cannot use them when I choose because you have left them dirty. Also, you have not accepted your responsibility to leave things as you found them. Three- I put food in the house--You tell others there is no food--You have dominated me by trying to destroy my image to other people, just because you do not like what there is to eat- Four- When I go to work and make money and buy something--You steal the money or things I have, then you have dominated me, by taking what was mine and not yours. These are the ways of domination: To think badly of a person To condemn or judge a person To steal from a person To destroy another's possession To make another person do something against their choice

To tell lies about another person To kill another person To threaten another or harm another to get your way To threaten or destroy another's possessions to get your way To do something for someone--when they have not asked--do gooders To do something for someone and expect something in return To project destructive thoughts to another person To make others make your decisions for you To make others do your job or take responsibility for you To make another think for you To not allow another a choice To control another person In order to have Joy, you must want to feel joy. You must also choose freedom. Joy is not felt on the domination level. Therefore you need to know the difference between domination and freedom so you can choose which course you want to take. Hence forth, each time a human allows, gives, grants, freedom of any kind to another human the human granting to give or allow the freedom, with or without knowledge, will feel the energy flow of joy. This energy flow of joy is to square upon itself each time freedom is granted, until it reaches the maximum level of human tolerance. This energy flow will be instant. Likewise, the pain of domination will be felt instantly when one person dominates another.

what is necessary to stop earth's disruption, but not one second longer.

Your cost of living is going out of sight. Your gasoline will suddenly bottom out again right in the middle of your holidays. Violence will grow in small gang action. Your civil police will take on more of the combat infantryman's work, as they did against the declared revolutionists in Los Angeles. You have forgotten that revolutionaries are the business of your army, not the police force. The rest of the world hasn't. Your government is now the same as the Viet, the English, the Stalin, the Hitler.

Treating revolutionaries as civil criminals has always been the downfall of all governments. That makes them heroes in the end. Such as the early settlers against the British in your own country, the crowd against the Kings in France...why go on, all of you are blind to the very cancer that is destroying you. You are calling mere CHANGE deadly, and seeking to destroy it by any means possible. This means destroying yourselves, because you forever are a part of change.

But why dwell on what you are going to find out for yourselves? There is a good side to all this. Many, many people are looking for a way, they are MOVING, and when they gather together, changes will be rapid and subtle. There is only one way of knowing. That is by communication.

The odd way the domination accepts the Free in your modern society can best be explained by a young, very attractive woman. She asks only to share, not have, not hold, not possess, and as of yet she has never been understood by males or females. Highly intelligent, deeply affectionate, passionately alive and yet she must wrap a shell around herself, must appear cold and unresponsive to do the professional work in which she is highly trained. In her private life, males are attracted to her strongly, but after a few engagements, they run scared. No female could be so undemanding, so highly cooperative and be normal....all females throw their hackles up when she is around, & at her constantly, even the Free among them, both male and female, after being exposed to her a few times, treat her with soft gloves to her face but instantly cut hell out of her behind her back, in an odd sort of confused self-defense. Yet this woman has done nothing to harm anyone deliberately in her entire life. She does and has to accept the mandates of the dominant system in her professional work or starve. None of the Free will starve this time around, including her, communication or no communication. This young lady keeps smiling at the total absurdity of the situation, but is getting ready to react. When she does, you will see part of the 'fun' mentioned before. Communication among the Free is rippling into high tide, as witness the overwhelming response to a simple-to-us-revelation concerning your devil-god situation here.

The many that answered the call of the Free was astounding. From all parts of the world the letters came. With one answer: We are ready, when do we MOVE?

A few words must be explained here to clarify the confused situation. Biblically speaking.

The true picture of the Trinity is Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Notice that the word god does not appear in this base structure, and that 'holy ghost' is today a confused thing. The ancient origin of the word ghost was 'wind', and the word holy was 'valued'. When put together, you get Valued Wind. Something that does 'good'. I, the Alien, am not

'good' by your society, and I certainly am not the 'wind' of your planet. Although admittedly I have been called 'windy' many times, and 'good' at other times-but not at what. That wouldn't be printable for others better protection. The third word of that base structure in today's language should be 'LAW'. It is the closest communication possible in the coming chaos, because, oddly enough, the 'Father' is here, and I the Alien, am here, and the 'Son' has come and gone quietly just a few years back, but is waiting within scope of recall should the Mission deem His presence necessary. As the 'Father' emerges, your blue planet is in for a shock. For if nothing else, you, humans of earth, are entering into the FEMALES DAY ON EARTH! And nothing-absolutely nothing-can stop it.

Our messages are getting through. The Free are coming awake. they are stirring in their birthsleep. The total power is now on. You will answer to yourselves and move, or to back to sleep among the glowing coals of a lost world. *****

Domination versus Free:

You of planet earth are more than confused, you are horribly confused. In all this time, none of you can clearly state the difference between two systems existing on your blue planet. The two are so tightly wed that you think them one. As has been pointed out to NewsNovel publishers by letters and meetings, this ignorance has those willing to change asking: change to what?

Quite a few have started killing dominators in the name of freedom. Killing is a domination weapon: use it and the dominators win. As has been proven, the freedom fighters die. Freedom fighters?

This word is in itself domination: do as I say for your own good even if I have to kill you to get you to do it. It is a shame that your total DNA patterns carry violence as the only counter to violence. Bred into you is the never ending cycle of destruction. In your final bid, you destroy hoping blindly to bring creation. Because you do not recognize the two existing systems.

Domination is that system that has bosses, gain, competition, hostility, corruption, coercion and slavery. Free is that way of thought that has only value and the exchange thereof.

Conflict arises when domination wheedles, buys, tricks and places a price of goods upon value, and value resists.

In action, your life has value to you: it also has value to all others. To others the value is how much you produce, what you produce and what it costs them to get you to produce it. So the instant you are born you are of value to others besides yourself. They move to protect THEIR value, not yours. In so doing, they must move also to protect your future life, else they will lose their value accruing in you. At the moment of birth, you become a pawn because of value to others.

That is the domination system. You in turn, as you grow, accrue value in others, continuing the chain.

What of your own values? Those things you inherently know to be of equality to all others in your life cycle?

Once you start accepting domination, you drown them in rationalization: they were just vague things to begin with.

You deliberately killed the burning of the Free: you made the biblical choice..... "....once chosen, you never again can know.." in that one lifetime wherein you chose.

Free is a way of thought, of sharing values without price or hinderance, the realization that all things were put on your planet for all to use equally, that man himself has not created one blade of grass: only gained control of its growth and thereby other people must beg it of the controller. The easy step to domination lies in that one fact and even happiness becomes haphazard.

Just what is happiness? A state of mind. An emotion. A sense of well-being. A contentment of a human being. An energy wavelength which most humans find difficult to achieve. One of the higher wavelengths on the human field of endeavor. A wave length which is duplicated by the domination to correspond with the joy wavelength. Joy of course not being of this planet has not been understood by the humans here, just as humans do not understand happiness.

One thing for certain, if a human can achieve happiness, they can achieve joy. Happiness is on the road to joy. Happiness combined with freedom brings joy.

Maybe it would be easier to draw a line of emotional endeavor. Destruction-hate-frustration-anger-not caring-neutral: constructive defense-anger-a sense of well-being-happiness-affection-sex: awareness of ones self-knowledge-use of knowledge: freedom-love-joy. From total domination to total freedom.

And yet happiness is not understood. Actually happiness is in many ways a false state of mind. Especially when one depends on another to achieve the contented state of mind. Which of course is domination.

Happiness, the energy wave length, is a natural phenomena of the earth planet. It is brought on by self, a state of brain action. The brain in the instance of happiness is basically content, elated, has a hope for the future and does not see

THE FREE ARE MOVING:

by the Alien
The results from the publication by NewsNovel dealing with the revelations of Satan's devil-work is indeed astounding. Of the numerous letters, just one denied any or part of the entire published matter. Among the letters were quite a few from the clergy and religious organizations. All of these writers were in complete agreement with the printed words. All wanted to know what they could do about it, including the ones that made many-mile trips to talk to members of the NewsNovel Staff. All were surprised that they finally saw this in print, and that there were others besides themselves that knew this.

NewsNovel was swamped with mail and has been unable to answer all the inquiries personally. So they have asked me to PLEASE tell all those interested how they can MOVE, if they so desire. The NewsNovel Staff self at them.

We have no use for the parasites. The parasites are those who contribute NOTHING to the society surrounding them, while charging the society with being EVIL. The parasite, like the louse, lives off the society while damning the society and doing its best to destroy the society, with nothing to offer after the society is destroyed. Each person has this right only after they have been born and instantly abandoned, and they have fed themselves, clothed themselves, taught themselves and transported themselves without bothering one single human being to do it for them. In order for a do-nothing not to be a parasite, they will have had to be totally self sufficient from the second of birth.

The Free are totally responsible for their freedom. They do not take from society, but add to it, each in their own way, the best NewsNovel staff were a bit put-out because the article said for the free to MOVE, but did not say exactly how. It seems the staff is also a bit thick in the head as well as the reading public. When I pointed out that the free DID move, by merely writing the letter and/or contacting the staff, they were a bit taken aback. I pointed a few things out to them, and now I am going to point them out to all of you who care, and all of you that are FREE.

I do not want any organization. Any that claim to be free and want organization instantly show their actual domination. Yet what is wanted is a gathering or collecting place, so that thoughts can be exchanged, so that at long last the Free can feel no longer so terribly alone. The Free also wish to get their deep contentment and values to the attention of all others, so that they will at least be understood by the dominating masses, they know how, forever keeping free of the use of self-force or coercion, except in self-defense of their physical lives. This time around, the Free have total right of total self-defense under law. When used, domination ducks very hastily, including the Prince of Darkness, the Lord God of Hosts.

The staff of NewsNovel became a little foolish in broad daylight on one of our visits right after SATAN hit their new-racks. Value decided to call the devil in. And did.

They heard all that was communicated. For a few weeks they went around looking for a psych ward, until the novelty became commonplace. They still think they may be schizo but have decided that it really doesn't matter. They were asked to pick from the taperecorder that which they thought the most 'chilling' in the transmission, and here it is "...I-the Lord God of

if not tolerated openly.

There is really only one value to the Free: the human life and the uninterrupted learning of that life. Yes, the one of Value is here with us. The Way of the Free based upon human value will soon be made public. Prior to this, should they wish to know, the Free must have meeting or collecting points in each city, and in order to do this, all of the Free will have to move at this time. The way is simple.

Select a room or office or store in a public place. Rent it and send the address to NewsNovel. Put nothing on the doors or windows, do no advertising at all. As NewsNovel is contacted by the Free, the address with your address will be given them, and all that so wish will have a cross-mailing list sent to them. Each person that makes available a meeting place will be called a KEYHOLDER, and the ones coming to that place will be called KEYHOLDERS. The key-

Our presence in his domain is being explained, very carefully, so that he may have no excuses at any time, and should we have to call in the power of the Father, he will have to meet it face on, in cold, stark terror, for terror is of his doing, not ours. Not the Free. The Father will have no human that KNOWINGLY places an earth made god before Him. Not now. Not ever. When we finish our mission, you will know, and then you will choose. You will be with the Father or with the Prince of Darkness.

As stated in the first publication, all things have come to pass, except Ford was foolishly made Vice President, which by now is perfectly clear to everyone. Nixon hasn't

Any keycarrier can be denied further meeting in the meeting place by a simple vote of the majority at any given time, providing the keycarrier so voted upon is present when the action is taken and given the right of self-defense. There will be no bylaws, rules or regulations, and there will be no parasites. After failure of two months open door fee, the keycarrier will be deemed to be a parasite by the keyholder. When this amounts to more than five keycarriers, the lock to the door will be changed and new keys given to the remaining Free. Each keycarrier will have the right to bring a guest for two meetings. After this, the guest either becomes a keycarrier or is no longer admitted. Each keycarrier must use the key to open the door at any announced his health resignation yet, but it is growing more evident every day that his mind is not functioning normally. Any head of any corporation doing business would have gotten rid of a corporate president long before now on mental incompetence, if nothing else. The strain upon his heart and head is very great, and when it comes, it will come suddenly. It is a shame.

Nixon means right. He has always meant right. He is doing what he thinks is right. But so did Nero. So did Napoleon. So did Hitler. So did Stalin... the list is endless of those that choose, and in choosing, from their place on the mountain, they came to know no more of the way of the Father. In choice, they become blind to paradise. That is the way of man. That is the way of power in man, as expressed in Satan's, the Lord God of Hosts, very own system. Once and all times, even in meetings scheduled. The door will be kept locked at all times. A keycarrier has the right of use of the place twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week. Literature, posters, notes, messages, can be exchanged via a simple bulletin board and ordinary table. The furnishings should be very skimpy. Mats would be preferable to chairs but that is up to those of the Free at their own meeting place. They may do as they wish. NewsNovel will furnish whatever it can in the way of guidance, until such time as we, the aliens, step forth and openly acknowledge ourselves. At that time, for the first time on your planet, the fun begins.

To all of you: We, the Free, are not national traitors. We are not any 'ists' or 'isms' of any kind. We are Free. We are here to take all those who so choose OUT OF HARM'S WAY, not expose them to harm, should the harm of domination direct it-the tail is taken in the mouth, the thing has nothing else to eat, so must, verily, devour itself.

The things that have been put to work are working. Chaos is building. The Israeli's stopped before Cairo. The war there has been held as promised. You may find it very odd that no one has said why the tanks stopped at the gates of the fall of Egypt. With no more opposition, with less than an hour of open road to total victory before them, the tanks stopped. No reason. They stopped.

Think what you will. I, the Alien, said they would stop, or the very heavens would open before a nuclear war should erupt at this time. The so-called 'warriors' of the heavens' have been showing themselves more frequently. You had better act or at least hope that they will not have to show themselves in 'force'. Until you have chosen, those 'boys' will do ll of the displeasures of the world. It has a sense of security, an ability to laugh at the world.

Freedom, love, and joy are not a part of the domination system. Freedom, love and joy are strictly of the free system. The freedom of choice system.

Joy is not an emotion. Happiness is an emotion. Joy is a state of intelligent being. Joy comes with total freedom, and cannot be taken away. Happiness can and is often taken away by others. Happiness the emotion depends on others, Joy is not an emotion and does not depend on others.

by Dawn

The figment of a man's imagination of the ideal woman is in distance today. Yet, she constantly searches for her and when they find her they do not believe what they have heard. In fact, the domination male as well as the free male, gets highly suspicious of her. The suspicion turns into fear. And in fear the male flees from her, then denies she ever existed.

Just what is an ideal female to a man's way of thinking? Sizes and shapes will vary according to the male just as the term beauty will vary. However, there are some universally desirable traits of the ideal female. These include: attractive and sexy appearance, understanding, never condemning what a man does, the ability to share with a male, the enjoyment of sex, a good sense of humor, a zest for life, an ability to have fun, the ability to think for herself, the ability to make a decision and follow through on that decision, pride in the fact that she is a female, a natural easy way of living, an enjoyment of male companionship.

What I have just described is a free female. The female may be married and have a dozen children but still be free. Free is a way of thought and action.

For approximately 13 thousand years domination has condemned the female and kept her in bondage. It is ironic that the ideal female to a man's way of thinking is a free female. And here the problem begins.

The total DNA pattern, as well as what a male has been taught since birth, to this date is domination. But his idea of an ideal female is a free female. The females total DNA pattern as well as what she has been taught to this date is domination.

Free males and free females are beginning to express their way of thoughts on the subject of freedom and remove their disguise of domination. How has society as a whole accepted this? As a free male, you are looked upon as being odd. You are not understood but you are accepted. Various free males have made themselves known down through the ages of history. As a free female, you are totally denied, feared, rejected and scorned. A few free females have made themselves known throughout history but usually very well disguised and lost in the history books with only a line or two of acknowledgement, and the acknowledgement is usually derogatory.

What does this have to do with the ideal female in a man's thought process? First of all males are not used to meeting free females. Free females are an unknown quality to males. Anything that is unknown is feared by humans. Therefore since free females are unknown, a male is fearful of her. Then arises the fact that free males should not be afraid of free females but are. WHY? Like the domination male, free males think all women are the same therefore are fearful of losing their freedom through her.

Maybe at this point a description of a free female is desirable. A free female is the following: Varies in size and shape, color of hair, eyes, skin differ, attractive and sexy in appearance, understanding, never condemning what any human does but does not agree with domination, she does not judge, has the ability to laugh, treats sex in a light natural manner and recognizes compatible vibes, enjoys life as a whole and enjoys having fun. She thinks for herself and allows others to think for themselves (both male and female). She makes decisions and follows through with her decisions. She is proud that she is female and proud that males are males. She walks tall, has a sparkle of joy in her eyes, and a slight smile on her face most of the time. Ask and she will do almost anything as long as she desires and it is not dominating others. Demand or dominate her with voice, thought, or action and she is very capable of defending herself. She may be single, married or divorced. If you are a friend to her it will last throughout eternity. At this point in time, the free female is for the most part very lonely. The free female has a job to do and will accomplish her chosen task. The free female is just now beginning to shed the chains of domination.

The base problem in today's society of the free female is that she is judged by domination female habits. The domination female seeks UNKNOWINGLY TO ENTRAP a male, using all mating instincts unconsciously or consciously in the total assault to have and keep a man of her own.

A free female wishes to be desired-not to own or be owned-but to share with a male her and his mutual desires under free choice and exchange of emotions along life's path, with a deep sense of each being to the other as they are to themselves. In the manner the loneliness gap of the free is bridged.

Because it is so easy to blame the many problems of the world on individual ideologys, groups, & vested interests it is probably a good idea at this point to examine the situation farther. In her 1st chapter of "You" Janet Wheeler points out that while man continually dominates his fellow beings & animals, he continues to rebel against his domination by others. Total domination by this fact would bring on an adhorence of self. More closely, people dominate others in rising waves of authority, starting at the baby-family level or circle on up to the highest forms of government. Under a self determination decision persons can recognize that the very opposite side of this domination chain exists. It is the FREE or freedom of choice system.

Since it is really only the act of the self that can bring on the reactions in life, at this point it can be realized that freedom and domination ARE and one can choose whatever fits self, not others. Self, being free, has the right to look at all the patterns of domination that exist and realize that the teachings forced upon people under physical & abstract punishment threats are self accepted domination patterns. A point can be reached when self realizes that continuity in free can only be had when it is based on Self Knowledge... not the knowledge of others. Acting upon self knowledge and allowing each & every other self to work upon their self knowledge...with the total right of self defense to each in his own different knowledge, such a continuity can be the basis of a free system & an understanding of self. "SELF IS THE FREE KNOWLEDGE & IT'S USE WITHOUT DOMINATION"

For persons who choose to exist under & uphold a FREE system there are guidelines in the News-Novel #11 "Your Road". This work points out that regardless of your choices you are only accountable to yourself. If you continue in a domination system you will pay the price of returned physical or mental pain(witness the last ten thousand years) If you continue to seek freedom you must accept the responsibility of granting freedom to others. Coming from within yourself freedom cannot be taken from you unless you allow it, you have the total right to self defense & choice. Being a reality, thought will determine whether you are happy, sad, free, or dominated. You will be continually required to make the choices yourself...or slip back into being told under the domination system. If you are faced with anger, hostility, or joy, you can accept or reject as you wish. If you are a slave you will say "I'm afraid to" if you are an incomplete person & helpless, you will say "I need". As a free person you will say "I choose to" & then take the responsibility of your actions. You will notice that persons of domination use the terms "you must", "you have to", & "you should".

THE WAYS OF DOMINATION ARE:

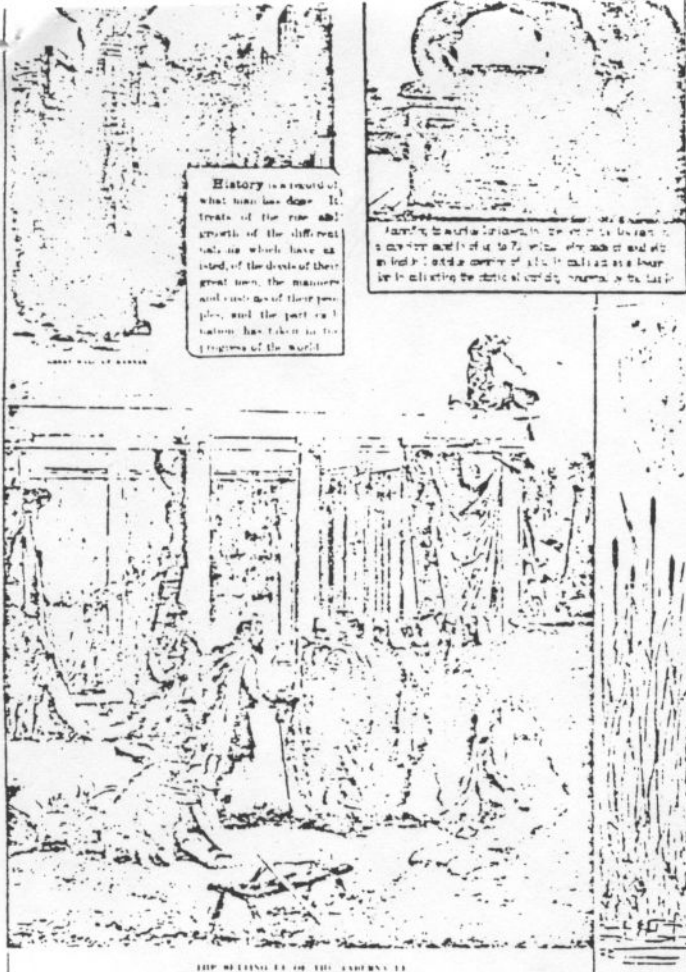

- "To think badly of a person."
- "To condemn or judge a person."
- "To steal from a person."
- "To destroy another's possession."
- "To make another person do something against their choice."
- "To tell lies about another person"
- "To kill another person."
- "To threaten another or harm another to get your way."
- "To threaten or destroy another's possessions to get your way."
- "To do something for someone when they have not asked (do-gooding)"
- "To do something for someone & expect something in return."
- "To project destructive thoughts to another person."
- "To make others make your decisions for you."
- "To make others do your job or take responsibility for you."
- "To make another think for you."
- "To not allow another a choice."
- ...& lastly, "To control another person."

Now can you recognize where the problems lie?(More data from publisher)

CAN'T brainwashing, most paranormal abilities simply to much to accept. There simply isn't anything in their schooling and experience to support such a concept. For persons who must have everything down in black and white blueprints, there is a work which does show exactly how the human components can travel mentally or physically to other areas or time frames.....

A.B.Glaser was able to instantly go to virtually any area of the planet to gather information. He also sometimes went beyond the planet to gain information. It was very simple for him and with an astonishing simplicity, he produced a work showing how the Atoms of the various Minds or human components were linked together. Once a person could balance their components and learn the required 'inner' cooperation, time and distance was no barrier. On page 61 of Glaser's Modern Humans Comprehension course #4, you can see how the Kinetic energy given off by the Soul Life Atom does this Earth tripping work within simple LAW. This work is virtually the only text to ever get down to such basic Atomic structure levels to reveal how the body can transcend the usual physical laws. Comprehended, you will find out why most persons are blocked in their super normal abilities...and how such blockages can be lifted. For many years I saw Glaser put into practice the same miraculous performances attributed to Jesus & great Avatars. As his Earthy mission came to a close, he decided to give humanity the blueprints to such power and ability. If you are reading this report I suspect you are ready to rise above the usual levels of just existing like some slave on a treadmill. You are probably ready for freeing yourself and assuring your survival for the rest of eternity. If this is so do yourself a favor and look into Glaser's 'Comps'...

Al Glaser of Riverside holds a copy of his newspaper format "novel" which he sells for a quarter in newspaper racks on street corners.

The "How to Survive a Depression" news novel is an opinionated, philosophical tract on the history, causes and prevention of economic depressions and on what can be done by the individual hard-pressed to stay alive during one.

"Dawn at Twilight," at 150,000 words, covers 23 regular newspaper-size pages of solid type. It is set in the future when the women of the world revolt, arm themselves and set out to take away all arms from men so there can be real peace. It has a "1984" flavor and setting.

Glaser and Alson Fry of Perris each wrote half of the two-part treatise with each of their sections under their own names.

If the Comps are outside your budget at the moment it is recommended you get a copy of "Earth Report" or "Total Self Defense" ($20 ea) Both give deep insights into Glaser's knowledges and your potentials.....

UNDER WRAPS and awaiting future publication are some expose type things which Glaser says will be published anonymously because the authors are afraid to say what they know in public. Glaser expects trouble from these new "novels" and, also, good sales.

HOW DOES GLASERS WORK COMPARE WITH OTHERS LIKE PERCIVAL, MAX LONG, URANTIA & OAHSPÉ ?

Answers by Fry. To begin with Glaser didn't depend on older books to get his knowledge. Most history & philosophical works are simply borrowed rehashes of older works. (his-story) Glaser tapped in to the specific components he wrote about and got 1st hand knowledge. He could also go to the so called Akishic (other dimensional repository) records if he required historical data. I was frequently amazed when I saw him do this in front of me in a matter of seconds. In the 'Comps' the keys to how such things can be done through balance.

Percival had some of the picture when he advocated getting the 'thinker' and the 'doer' working together. Without a detailed knowledge of how these components interreacted together it's next to impossible to apply such principles. I got excited when I discovered Percival's work many years ago, but never could get results. Like Max Long's work, you can see what the higher overall picture is & what the authors were covering only after you get the 'Comp' background.

Long's Huna books are very helpfull and true to principle as far as they go. It's just that the high & low selves are detailed out so much deeper in the Modern Humans Comp 2 text.

Urantia is the work of followers of a parrallel system to that of the 'Father' (Creator) mentioned by Jesus and others (He never used the term god). These beings are not really aware of the 'flow lines' beyond their own. While their goals of a 'paradise' are lofty, it is only one of two options. A long tale... Comp students can recognize both systems and make a valid choice knowingly.

"Oahspe" is a rather antiquated historical work for the most part. It's interesting and has a kindly philosophy, but completely ignores the great brain alteration events which so altered the course of humanity (Garden of Eden)

Like so many other well meaning philosophical & religious works, it leads the reader no where practical.

"There are some things we have here that are highly explosive and I'm sure we're going to run into trouble," he said, with relish.

He selects pieces for his new medium on the basis of the "merit of the story."

"As long as it's interesting to a broad segment of the population, I'll publish it," he said.

Truth also will be a criterion. "I like the truth, the writer's truth, not sham and malarky. It doesn't have to be a truth that anybody else will believe."

His "news novel" format is not a new concept, he said, but a revival of the earliest style of newspapers. Near the turn of the century, newspapers carried serialized works of fiction, he said, and many of the "classics" first appeared in newspaper or tabloid form, he contended.

There exists upon this planet earth two principles that cause all conflict. One is named DOMINATION and the other is named FREE.

DOMINATION

Domination, in the form of god worship, began upon this planet upon the birth of intelligence upon this planet, because the first intelligence upon this planet was of domination, that being the reason why it was exiled here. Therefore, the total system of all things here is of domination, which puts forth the punishment and reward principles in return for behavior in favor of those dominating. This is an excellent system of total cruelty to humans, because the teachings of this system begins at birth under dire threat of horrible punishment when the system is rejected, and great good or benefit if the system is adored to completely, including life after death.

The godhead of this horrible system is itself one of the upmost in-humane horror or the upmost humane good, in anyway those in dominion put forth at any given time, and sometimes, such as in the case of mass dual killing called war, the good and the bad exist on both sides at the same time! Each force rushes forth under their god calling for the death of the other side!

In the same way, this horrible god principle puts forth multiple heavens in such numbers that each befuddled human ends up with an individual heaven to themselves! This god principle divides, punishes, benefits and uses humans in the most cruel ways under pain laws ever devised by supreme beings - yet we, humans, wish to emulate or ape this god principle, and call ourselves good!

The god principle upon this planet is of the Prince Of Darkness himself - or, as we humans in our confusion call it - the Devil!

The above can be easily understood if anyone cares to read the origin of the god principle in the history books of the ancient Chaldeans, Egyptians or Sumerians!

The god principle came out of the total terror visited upon the inhabitants of this planet at the birth of intelligence, when the inhabitants of this planet sought desperately to appease this terrible force that used them unmercifully and without recourse. All religions today still teach appeasement to this same Devil-God!

This, you as a human, are taught from the cradle, and as you go forward in growth and intelligence, and the total contradiction of this system starts coming clear, find no way in which to refute the horrible nightmare you are forced to live, because, now being yourself of intelligence, you become acutely aware of the FREE PRINCIPLE.

THE FREE

The only truly free beings of this planet for thousands of years were visitors! They were not of the origin of the inhabitants of this planet nor were they of the domination or devil element exiled to this planet, but in direct opposition to it, in order to again bring balance to universal law. When this balance is brought forth through the free of this planet, then this planet will be the place desired by all, not the few!

Before Moses, a decision was made. Upon this decision came Moses and Christ. Today yet another comes. The book of Revelations died at the time it was written because nothing is a 'revelation' that was revealed two thousand years ago! The archives of the devil keepers that changed the words of Christ have also hidden the promise of Christ: Yes, and I shall not come again, but among you will come a man of revelation, and ye shall know, and time will be at end, and resurrection will be about ye, and the choice shall be yours until the end of all time.

Moses did not use the word 'god'; he used 'I am'.....Christ did not use the word 'god'; He used 'my father'! Both set forth principles of FREE and proved principles of FREE before humans. Both suffered and lived the fate of humans, so as to know what had been visited upon humans and thereby correct the visits! Both totally rejected the 'gods' of their times and brought forth the free laws of creation.

The devil-gods instantly set about the rejection through confusion of these principles, and turned the free principles to their benefit through total domination and absolute horror until again all humans prostrated themselves before the devil-gods, beseeching mercy and deliverance again and again and again.....which they shall never have from the devil-gods. The same followers of the devil-gods stand upon the pulpits today, in their ignorance spouting the ageless words of dominion over all mankind, in the name of a god that started the total savagery that humans scream to be free of!

The law of choice is yours! As intelligence grew in form and shape over thousands of years, and under the one law of all creation, freedom of choice in knowledge, the gods of domination struck in succeeding waves of rising cruelty. Today they stand manifest and ready to destroy all the works of man through unimaginable force and destruction that they have caused to be built of human intelligence. Rather than be denied, the 'gods of the Devil' will totally destroy all the works and under the law of natural creation, will throw the whole system into recycle and you will again go through over three thousand years of rebirth and horror - until you again reach the decision of the FREE!

YOU ARE IN THE DAYS OF THE RESURRECTION AND KNOWLEDGE. YOU AND ONLY YOU WILL CHOOSE BECAUSE THE POWERS OF THE DEVIL-GODS ARE BEING SET ASIDE. YOUR EXERCISE OF KNOWLEDGE HAS FREE REIGN AGAIN. ALL YOU NEED DO IS FREE YOURSELF OF THE FEAR OF KNOWLEDGE! YOU SHALL CHOOSE THE PATH OF THIS PLANET FOR ALL ETERNITY, EITHER IN THIS CYCLE OR AS MANY CYCLES AS YOU CHOOSE TO SUFFER. THE LAWS OF CREATION ARE EXACT. ONLY MAN HAS PUT USELESS 'TIME' TO THEM AND THEREBY HOPES TO SET THEM ASIDE.

After you have read this, you may seek or you may retreat. The choice shall forever remain yours. Should you wish to seek, your next step is to read "YOU".

WAR IN HEAVEN

$15.00 by KYLE GRIFFITH

WAR IN HEAVEN is 190 letter-sized pages, spiral bound with a paper cover.

This is a promotional flier for WAR IN HEAVEN, a 110,000-word channeled book that introduces a completely new and revolutionary conception of the nature of spiritual reality. The material in WAR IN HEAVEN was dictated to me by automatic writing, but WAR is very different from most New Age channeled books. It is clearly and compactly written; it contains a large amount of explicit, detailed spiritual information; and it is militant and controversial in tone.

Some readers of the pre-publication edition of WAR IN HEAVEN were disturbed or frightened by it, and a few attacked it as evil and Satanic. However, a larger number of readers hailed it as a major breakthrough in cosmological theory for the New Age. One might conclude from reading a summary of the book's contents that WAR is negative and pessimistic, but this is not true. I, and my spirit guides, are actually very optimistic about the future of the human race.

WAR IN HEAVEN is not a typical New Age book, nor am I a typical New Ager, though I helped to found that movement in the Sixties and Seventies. I was raised as a traditional occultist, and my primary goal in life has always been to develop my skills as a psychic and magician. However, I also possess past-life memories that have caused me to develop into a very different kind of occultist from my relatives who were Freemasons, Rosicrucians, Spiritualists, or Theosophists.

I have been aware since 1946, when I was four years old, that my soul was deliberately sent to this planet by an advanced extra-terrestrial civilization to assist Earth people in dealing with a major crisis in their spiritual evolution. For this reason, I've studied UFOs and related subjects as seriously as I've studied psychic and spiritual phenomena, and the relationship between the two has always been obvious to me.

The same applies to conspiracy theories - I have known all my life that unseen forces really do manipulate the course of human history, and my response has not been fear or anger, but rather a desire to help any of these agencies whose ethical and political goals seem similar to mine. I've been a left-wing anarchist and a member of the counterculture since the late Fifties, and I've grown more politically and socially radical with age. In the late Sixties, my spirit guides suggested that I call myself a Spiritual Revolutionary, and I've been doing so ever since.

However, I didn't become fully conscious of what the term meant until 1983, when I made a breakthrough in personal awareness about spiritual reality. In July of that year, after several years of intensive magical and intellectual preparation, I asked my spirit guides: "Tell me the Great Secret, the theory that explains the true nature of gods and human beings and of the relationship between them." The reply that I received by automatic writing didn't surprise me, but I was absolutely astonished by it just the same. The spirits seemed to be trying to dictate a completely new and revolutionary cosmology, a view of spiritual reality with moral, social, and political implications that most people would consider literally unthinkable.

I eventually became able to record the messages in clear and explicit English. It took me over five years, and thousands of hours of grueling labor, to receive all the spirit-dictated information for WAR IN HEAVEN and write it into a book. The reviews and comments on the next two pages will give you an idea of what WAR is about and why I am advertising it as "the most controversial channeled book of the century."

Here is an excerpt from Jay Kinney's review of SPIRITUAL REVOLUTION in GNSIS #6, published in January of 1988:

This self-published book is among the most fascinating - and most troubling - books I've read in some time. It is fascinating because it consists of channeled (i.e., automatically written) material that is not only clear and pointed but also flies in the face of almost all other channeled teachings. And it's troubling because to take SPIRITUAL REVOLUTION (SR) seriously entails entering into a topsy-turvy worldview that most of us would normally consider to be highly paranoid.

Briefly put, the material in SR claims to emanate from a group of disembodied spirits informally called the "Invisible College." As one might guess from its name, this group says it was the force behind the development of groups such as the Freemasons and Rosicrucians. More surprising, however, is its claim to also have influenced the rise of the civil rights movement, the spread of LSD, the anti-war movement, and even rock'n'roll. So far so good - if this were all, one could pay "the Invisible College" as the hippest bunch of inner plane guides around, whispering bright ideas in the ears of the unsuspecting. However, there's more.

The group is apparently engaged in an ongoing struggle against another powerful conglomeration of inner plane spirits it calls "the Theocrats." These types are apparently the ones behind most world religions, and, in fact, hang around churches and other places of worship soaking up the psychic energy that devout believers beam their way in prayer. These fiends are fond of meeting the newly deceased as they reach "the other side" and ushering them into an illusory Heaven where their souls are gobbled up by the top Theocrats. In other words, according to SR, spiritual traditions which teach love of God, and, ultimately, union with the divine, are really scams run by the inner plane Theocrats to rip off psychic energy and souls. SR spells all this out in far more detail than I have space for here.

Considering that most channeled messages sound like their spirit authors have been cribbing from each others' notes, SR's revelations about a "War in Heaven" stand out as decidedly unique... SPIRITUAL REVOLUTION is a startling book that makes one reexamine all of one's spiritual assumptions... Considering that SR's thesis undercuts the spiritual moorings of world civilization, there ought to be some heated discussions to come.
