Earned Income

When evaluating earned income:

- Use gross amounts, before any deductions such as taxes, retirement, etc.
- Use the "pay date" (received), not the "pay period ending date"
- Check and record "Year to Date" amounts on the CAWAGE screen

Roll over the highlighted areas for more information.

Medically Needy Only (MNO)

DESCRIPTION
 This Medicaid program has higher income and resource eligibility limits than the Non-Money Payment Program (NMP). The MNO program provides medical coverage to individuals of all ages who meet specific eligibility criteria. However, the medical coverage under the MNO program is dependent upon the age of an individual.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS
 Certain adults and children must meet specific non-financial criteria such as:

- Age
- Category
- Residence
- Incapacity
- Deprivation

MAWD

Medical Assistance for Workers with Disabilities
 "An Excellence in Service Initiative"

Introduction

On January 1, 2002, the Department of Public Welfare will implement Medical Assistance for Workers with Disabilities (MAWD), which will provide Medicaid benefits to working individuals with disabilities.

This session will provide an overview of MAWD including the procedures used by the CAO to determine eligibility for MAWD. By the end of this session, you will be able to correctly determine and document eligibility for health care benefits under this program.

Each track is specifically designed to meet the special needs of your position. If you are Income Maintenance Staff, click the "Income Maintenance Staff" button to enter the program. If you are Clerical Support Staff, click the "Clerical Support Staff" button to enter the program.
