

ACBL YOUTH ADVOCATE

Are you a youth member interested in helping to improve the ACBL Youth Bridge Program?

The ACBL's Youth Division is accepting applications to fill the volunteer position of Youth Advocate. The Youth Advocate will be elected by the ACBL Youth membership for a period of one year. The election will be conducted through the ACBL youth web site.

If you are a Youth player, fit the profile below, are interested in the position and have parental permission, please submit a one page or less introduction and the names and contact information for at least two sponsors listing how you meet the qualifications below and the reasons why you would like to be considered for this position.

The submissions must be received in writing between April 1st and June 1st either by e-mail to education@acbl.org or by mail to ACBL Youth Advocate Position, ACBL, 2990 Airways Boulevard, Memphis TN 38116. Upon receipt the ACBL Education Department will verify the application and references. Upon verification, the application letter will be posted on the ACBL Youth web site for the consideration of ACBL's youth members.

Qualifications for the Position of ACBL Youth Advocate:

- Under the age of 20
- Member in good standing of the ACBL for over one year
- Participant in ACBL sanctioned events
- Working knowledge of online bridge opportunities
- Elected by youth members via the ACBL youth web site for a one year term
- Parental approval

Job Description:

- Solicit constructive ideas from the Youth Division members to improve the ACBL Youth Bridge Program.
- Prepare a report which presents these suggestions for the consideration of the ACBL Board's Junior Committee.
- Prepare a trimester report with any results on these suggestions and on youth activities, upcoming events and youth news items suitable for the Youth4Bridge web site.

ACBL JUNIOR ADVOCATE

Are you an ACBL junior member interested in helping to improve the ACBL Junior Bridge Program?

ACBL's Junior Division is accepting applications to fill the volunteer position of ACBL Junior Advocate. The Junior Advocate will be elected by the ACBL Junior membership for a period of one year via the ACBL youth web site.

If you are a Junior player, fit the profile below, are interested in the position and have parental permission, please submit a one page or less introduction with the names and contact information of at least two sponsors listing how you meet the qualifications below and the reasons why you would like to be considered for this position.

The submissions must be received in writing between April 1st and June 1st by either e-mail to education@acbl.org or by mail to Junior Advocate Position, ACBL, 2990 Airways Boulevard Memphis TN 38116. Upon receipt the ACBL Education Department will verify the application and references. Upon verification, the application letter will be posted on the ACBL Youth web site for the consideration of the ACBL's junior members.

Qualifications for the Position of ACBL Junior Advocate:

- Between the ages of 20 and 25
- Member in good standing of the ACBL for over one year
- Participant in ACBL sanctioned events
- Working knowledge of online bridge opportunities

Job Description:

- Solicit constructive ideas from the Junior Division members to improve the ACBL Junior Bridge Program.
- Prepare a report that presents these suggestions for the consideration of the ACBL Board's Junior Committee.
- Report back to Junior Division members on the results of those suggestions.
- Prepare a quarterly report on junior activities, special upcoming events and junior news items suitable for the youth web site.